- 2 WHEREAS, the Georgia Writers Hall of Fame was established by the University of Georgia
- 3 as part of the school's 2000 millennium celebration; and
- 4 WHEREAS, the University of Georgia Libraries established the Georgia Writers Hall of
- 5 Fame to recognize Georgia writers, past and present, whose work reflects the character of the
- 6 state, its land, and its people; and
- 7 WHEREAS, this amazing collection of talent will be permanently housed at the new Hargrett
- 8 Library currently in construction at the university which will also house the Hargrett Rare
- 9 Book and Manuscript Library and the Georgiana Collection; and
- 10 WHEREAS, organizers conceived the Hall of Fame as a library reference, designed to
- 11 introduce interested groups to the university's unparalleled collections of Georgia literature
- and literary source materials; and
- WHEREAS, the Hall of Fame's online presence includes a virtual pantheon or "cyberhall"
- of digital portraits, capsule biographies, and bibliographies of the authors' published works;
- 15 and
- 16 WHEREAS, the Hall of Fame annually solicits nominations from the public and turns the
- 17 eligible nominations over to a board of volunteer judges, made up of 12 to 20 academics,
- 18 civic leaders, librarians, and publishing professionals selected for rotating three-year terms
- 19 by the director of the University of Georgia Libraries, who also chairs the board; and
- 20 WHEREAS, eligible nominees must have been either a native of Georgia or have produced
- 21 a significant work during or subsequent to a substantial time in Georgia; and
